Show Afterglow enjoyed at Cedarville United Methodist Church

Arrangements were made by the Afterglow Committee to use the Family Fellowship adjoining area at the back of the auditorium for our afterglow. The food, facilities, fellowship and entertainment was greatly enjoyed. After the invocation was given a catered buffet line was started. Quartets participating in entertaining were: featured quartet, One Night Only, Downtown Sound, Potts Tones and Time Frame from the Reading Chapter. Thank you quartets for the wonderful entertainment you provided. The Ches-Mont Jubilaires directed by LeRoy Scheffler closed the program with "Keep The Whole World Singing". We thank Jay Kapila and Tom Vagasky for organizing a successful Afterglow and all thank other members who provided delicious desserts and help clean up and rearrange the tables and chairs.
